HUNTINGTON - A woman is suing Marshall University Board of Governors after she claims she was injured while playing in a soccer game.

Southern Prosthetic Supply Inc. was also named as a defendant in the suit.

On Sept. 14, 2014, Marshall University directed Taylor Fleming to wear the Southern Prosthetic Supply face guard safety shield in a soccer game to protect her face, according to a complaint filed in Cabell Circuit Court.

Fleming claims the shield was hit by a soccer ball and it broke, shattered and cracked, which caused it to tear and rip into her face.

As a result, Fleming suffered bleeding, lacerations, scarring and permanent disfigurement, according to the suit.
